The group reviewed the RFP and the discussed the points assigned to the rubric. The committee tweaked a few categories and discussed evidence based outcomes.

The committee agreed the RFP should be created as a fillable form for those applying and the form will be accepted if printed off and sent in. The application will also include a contact person for questions, Brenda is willing to be the contact and will reach out to committee members if she cannot answer the question. The RFP would be sent out by September 1 and be in local newspapers, on website, Facebook and distribute by email.

The committee would like to present the RFP and rubric to the Board of Commissioner for their approval at the August 28 meeting at 6:00 p.m. Kate Beherenwald offered to take the lead when speaking to the Board of Commissioners and Jim Dimitriou, John Kroneck, Liz Braddock and Brenda Taeter will be in attendance.

The next meeting is scheduled for August 30 at 8:00 a.m. in the same location.
